LIFE SAVING INSURANCE

We are asked if we will insure men who are in the Life-Saving Service without extra rates. Yes. While there is no doubt an extra hazard, there is possible salvage. A life-saver can save more lives if he has behind him a life promise such as we sell, and a life saver insured for $2,000 might save a life insured for our limit—$25,000. Therefore, we make an extra charge for Life Savers, Trained Nurses, Doctors or Surgeons. There may be some extra risk, but, as we have said, there is the humane sentiment and the possible salvage in our favor.

Policeman Shocked to Death.
Amsterdam, N. Y., Sept. 12.—Charles F. Becker, for fourteen years a member of the Amsterdam police force, was electrocuted while returning home from duty. He noticed an electric light was not burning and attempted to "shake it up," as is customary for policemen. He took hold of the weight attached to the cable holding the lamp and was instantly killed. The heavy rain of the night is supposed to have caused the electric fluid from the lamp to pass over the insulating spool.

Heiress a Suicide.
San Francisco, Sept. 12.—Miss Isabella Duncan Clark, daughter of the late William Squire Clark, the San Jose millionaire, has committed suicide in her apartments at the McNutt hospital. She left an envelope addressed to Dr. McNutt containing a holographic will. The dead woman was one of the four handsome Clark sisters, well known in this city and San Jose, and was thirty-two years of age. Miss Clark suffered from frequent spells of melancholia and had twice before attempted suicide.

Leigh Hunt a Multimillionaire.
Des Moines, Ia., Sept. 12.—Michael O'Connor has just returned from Korea, where, he said, he saw Leigh Hunt, formerly a teacher here and later president of the State Agricultural college. O'Connor said: "Hunt is a multimillionaire, his wealth being estimated anywhere from $75,000,000 to $100,000,000. His concessions in Korea and eastern China are said to be princely. Hunt is now engaged in vast irrigation schemes in Korea."

Insurance Man Dies in Park.
Cleveland, O., Sept. 12.—Richard W. Taylor, Jr., general agent for Ohio of the Berkshire Life Insurance company, was found in a semiconscious condition in Wade park, and died soon afterward. The cause of death is not known. Taylor was well known in insurance circles, having been for twenty years with the New York Life Insurance company.

Maker Wins Another Big Race.
London, Sept. 12.—At the races of the Doncaster September meeting Wavelet's Pride, ridden by Danny Maher, the American jockey, won the Doncaster cup, of 1,000 sovereigns; a cup of the value of 200 sovereigns and the remainder in specie, added to a sweepstake of 10 sovereigns each, for three-year-olds and upward, two miles.

A Remarkable Experience

As Reported by Mr. L. S. Clapp of Deerfield, Who, in His Own Words, Recites the Particulars of a Most Miraculous Cure of Muscular Rheumatism.

He says: "I had rheumatism about me for a long time and for three months it was especially severe. I called three different doctors, each of whom pronounced it muscular rheumatism, but neither were able to give me any relief. My feet burned and were very sore and painful. The muscles in my legs were drawn up so that I was obliged to stop work and finally became unable to walk. I saw an advertisement of Dr. Gosson's Kidney and Bladder Cure. I bought and took two boxes according to directions, the result of which was so complete a cure from my ailments that I have not been troubled since, though that was several months ago. My experience certainly warrants me in recommending Dr. Gosson's Kidney and Bladder Cure for kidney and bladder troubles and for severe cases of rheumatism that always result therefrom."

"Most respectfully yours,
"L. S. Clapp, Deerfield, Mass."
